KOWLOON CAUSE UPSET IN SHIELD FOOTBALL

Strong South China Team Held To A Draw

Kowloon created one of the biggest upsets of the season against South China "A" in the second round of the Senior Shield on Saturday, holding the Chinese to a scoreless draw after extra time. The Mainlanders deserve the greatest praise taking into consideration the fact that the side fielded for the game was not the regular first eleven. South China "A," on the other hand, expected a hard game and turned out a full side.

Hartley in goal was at his best, giving a wonderful display. The Kowloon halves were a stone wall to the opposing forwards, young Maxwell being very prominent in this line. Sonny Ellis, after being on the injured list for the past fortnight made a welcome return.

Lau Tau-man, on the Chinese left wing, was a constant source of worry to Hartley but the remaining forwards were not in form. Leung Wing-chou and Lau Hing-chiu played well in the intermediate line, while Lee Tin-sang and Mak Shui-hon were safe backs. Pau Kau-ying was very much at home in goal.

SHORT EXCHANGES

Play opened with a period of short exchanges. Jorgie gathering the ball early on from a pass off Maxwell and sent the leather in to test Pau.

Lai Shui-wing retaliated and was within an ace of registering but for Hartley's brilliant save. Kwok's header gave Kowloon a sudden scare. No score was registered in the first half of play.

OPEN TACTICS

After the interval, Kowloon adopted open play tactics, swinging the ball from wing to wing and found they could easily get through the Chinese defence. The forwards had a number of shots at goal but in Kowloon's goal was a stone wall. Pau Kau-ying was very much at home in goal.

Kowloon was playing very strongly during the closing minutes of the game and had the upper hand. Pau Kau-ying was called upon to save the ball on time and time again.

No score was registered in the second half. An extra ten minutes was allowed but neither side scored, the teams being:—

Kowloon:—Hartley, Everest, Ulrich, Maxwell, Ellis, Eastman, W. Knox, Jorgie, Rietsen, Santos and Cruz.

S. China "A":—Pau Kau-ying, Mak Shui-hon, Lee Tin-sang, Lau Hing-chiu, Leung Wing-chiu, Lee Kwok-wai, Tang Kwong-sum, Lai Shui-wing, Fung King-cheong, Kwok Ying-ki and Lau Tau-man.

A NARROW WIN

At Sookunpoo on Saturday, P. W. D. defeated 5th A. A. Regt. R. A. by the odd goal in seven in the third round of the Junior Shield. The Chinese well deserved their victory.

Play was dominated by the Gunners, but the Chinese were much quicker on their feet, taking every opportunity in front of the goal-mouth.

Calvert on the wing gave a fine performance and was always dangerous when in possession. Bailey, in the P. W. D. goal, pulled off several fine saves and was called upon repeatedly to save players from Calvert and Dobbinson.

Calvert opened scoring for the Gunners, and netted again after the kick-off to put the Gunners further in the lead. Loo Yin-chi reduced arrears. At half time R. A. were one goal ahead.

Shui Sam placed the equaliser into the net from the kick-off and Ho Kar-keung gave the P. W. D. the lead with a fine first timer. Chan Cheung further increased the lead, while Dole scored for the Gunners. Calvert missed a penalty awarded just before full time.

The Teams were:—
5th A. A. Regt.: Pools, Corbin, May, Whittle, Winstanley, Dean, Barby, Coughlan, Dobbinson, Calvert and Percival.

P.W.D.: Bailey, Tang Kwong-wing, Ho Chai-yin, Loo Yin-chi, Shui Sam, Lai Kwok-chiu, Chan Cheung, Wong Wing-hong, Ho Kar-keung, Lo Tung and Fung King-u.

Eastman served by the left half, and Jorgie (3) and Will in the first half. Aziz further in the second half.

MINUTE VICTORY

In the last minute of the game, Middlesex gave the next round of the Junior Shield. Kowloon were to lose by a plucky fight.

Maxwell missed two spot-kicks, and Jorgie missed the cross-bar. Colewell to save the second.

Wednesday in Kowloon's goal was a stone wall. Pau Kau-ying was very much at home in goal.

George White scored the goal just before the final period of the extra time.

RIFLE SHOOTING

Overseas Postal Match

The N.R.A. Overseas Postal Match was fired on Saturday at Stonecutters Rifle Range, kindly placed at the disposal of the teams by the Naval authorities. A strong but constant fall wind was blowing all the time while the light up till 600 yards was good.

It was a cold morning and some members of the team who were clad in shirts were somewhat chilled. However, taking in all the conditions, the shooting was good and there was a distinct increase on last year's score.

P.O. SWAN, CAPTAIN OF THE S.R.
(a) team appropriately led their score with a 136. Marine Heather had a fine 48 at 500 yards but was unlucky with a gust of wind at 600 yards when he might have had 138.
In the S.R. (a) scores P.O. Richards, shooting on his own range, put on 127 a very fine performance.

Lieutenant L. B. Holmes of H.K.V.D.C. who was in the Colony team at Bisle, was an interested spectator.

From now on until the Prize Meeting in April the activities of the H.K.R.A. will be devoted to giving members an opportunity of practising at various ranges with eight or eleven shot shoots, so members should study the Programme of Shooting, a copy of which was published on the October Bulletin and also posted up in the Clubhouse.

There will be an eleven shot shoot on Wednesday, January 4, at 200 yards and 500 yards with revolver practice.

EASTERN AND SOUTH CHINA "B" DRAW

Dull Senior Shield Game

Fighting to a two-all draw in the second round of the Senior Shield at Caroline Hill, on Sunday, South China "B" and Eastern "B" were slated for a re-play. The game was slow and dreary, with the newly re-organised Eastern side dominating. Lee Shek-yau received marching orders in the first half of extra time after a regrettable incident in front of Eastern's goal.

Lee Tak-kee gave a splendid display, and coupled with Hau Ching-to, was a constant menace to Tam Kwan-kon. The former scored both Eastern's goals.

South China did not work well together and the forwards had very little to do, Eastern having most of the play.

Yeung Shui-yick gathering the ball from a long pass, took the ball down the wing and centred for Chan Tak-fai to register the opening goal for South China.

Eastern came within an ace of scoring the equaliser when Hsu King-shing's stinger hit the cross bar.

A free kick five yards outside the penalty area resulted in South China's second goal.

EASTERN PRESSES
After the interval Eastern resumed the attack and piled up pressure till full time. Hau Ching-to after a fine solo run down the wing, sent a pile-driver which was too hot for Tam to hold, and in the melee Lee Tak-kee registered the equaliser. There was no further scoring till full time. An extra ten minutes each way was allowed and Lee Shek-yau was sent off this time during this period. During the ten minutes of play brisk changes kept the ball going up and down the field.

The teams were:—
South China "B":—Tam Kwan-kon, Lau Wai-pau, Lau Mau, Yau Shui, Lim Ta-po, Tse Kam-hun, Yeung Shui-yick, Yeung Kam-ping, Chan Tak-fai, Lau Chung-sang and Lee Shek-yau.

Eastern:—Tsui Hang, Tsang Chun-wai, Mew Wah-kwok, Liu Shing-tan, Soong Ling-sing, Lo Wai-kuen, Chan Bing-to, Woo Chi-sang, Lee Tak-kee, Hsu King-shing and Hau Ching-to.

ENGINEERS WIN
Scoring a major upset in the Junior Shield competitions, Royal Engineers defeated South China, present runners-up in the Second Division, by three clear goals and earned the right to enter the semi-finals of the Junior Shield.

The Sappers played brilliantly and had the Chinese side beaten from the start. Long passes and first time shooting unbalanced the Chinese.

Low placed the Sappers in the lead with the opening goal. After the resumption South China had bad luck when Ip Yuen-po's shot hit the cross bar. Lower further had the third all into the net with a reply from South China.

With Sunday sport generally spreading throughout Australia, the suburban council at least, may remain in its decision to open the children's playgrounds and also to close tennis courts on the Sabbath the resistance remains unanimous.

Several church organisations, which petitioned the Unley Council to agree Sunday games, and had the Chinese side beaten from the start. Long passes and first time shooting unbalanced the Chinese.

Hawaii Clipper Loss Remains A Mystery

The Air Safety Board reported to the U.S. Civil Aeronautics Authority recently that it was unable to "ascertain any probable cause" for the disappearance last July 23 of the Hawaii Clipper with six passengers and a crew of nine aboard. The Clipper disappeared between Guam and Manila on a regular trans-Pacific flight.

The Air Safety Board, a branch of the Civil Aeronautics Authority, said no authentic trace of the plane was found and that, as the result, those who investigated its disappearance were unable to ascribe any probable cause for the disaster.

"Pending the discovery of some concrete evidence as to the fate of the Hawaii Clipper," the Board added, "the investigation remains in an open status."

OIL SLICK

The report said an oil slick discovered by the United States Army Transport Mojos near the last reported position of the Hawaii Clipper the day after its disappearance "was proved by chemical analyses and other tests to have no connection whatever with the plane, though at the time of its discovery this was generally regarded as a likely clue to the flying boat's fate."

The Board, however, said it refused to dismiss "as without probable bearing on the disappearance of the flying boat a report from the Island of Lahuy that a large plane was heard flying above the clouds about 3 p.m., Manila time, on July 23."

AERIAL SEARCH

Lahuy is a small island east of and close to the southeastern tip of Luzon, and was directly on the Clippers' course.

The report said that at normal cruising speed the flying boat should have reached the vicinity about 3.46 p.m., Manila time. A careful aerial search was made of Lahuy and near-by areas, but no trace of the ship was found. The Board said, however, that it is not prepared to say that the aerial search of Lahuy and other areas in the Island "can be considered as conclusive."

OFFICER HAD TO BE CARRIED UP GANGWAY

Dismissed His Ship By Court Martial

Commissioned Gunner Thomas Strachan, 43, of the cruiser Sheffield, was dismissed his ship by a Court martial recently. He pleaded guilty to four charges, including one of being drunk on board H.M.S. Sheffield.

The court also ordered that he should forfeit all seniority in the Fleet as a commissioned gunner, and that he should be severely reprimanded.

It was alleged that while officer of the patrol at Port Edgar, Scotland, on November 9, Strachan took a petty officer into a public house and drank with him; that he drank with two naval ratings; that he returned on board for duty drunk, and that on November 14 he was drunk on board.

ASLEEP IN PINNACLE
It was alleged that when returning to his ship Strachan had to be assisted into the pinnace, in which he apparently went to sleep, and he was carried up the gangway to the cruiser. On deck he was held up by the quartermaster and the corporal of the gangway.

The next day Strachan said: "I have had a lot of worry lately, which has caused me to lose sleep. I felt unwell while I was on shore, and to keep myself going I took some whisky."

Paymaster-Lt. D. V. Jesseman, defending, read a statement from Strachan saying that his wife, who was about to have another child, was in ill-health, and was unable to look after their three children, aged from 6 to 12.

Strachan was reported as having served 27 years in the Navy. His character was good, and he had shown marked ability.

THE SERVICES

ROYAL NAVY

KEYHAM COLLEGE COMMAND
Engineer Captain C. J. G. MacKenzie, C. V. O., is to take up the appointment of Engineer Captain in Charge of the R.N. Engineering College at Keyham, in succession to Engineer Captain Thomas Spalding.

The College, which trains officers specializing in engineering, whether entered as cadets at Dartmouth or by special entry or as artificer apprentices, is now working to full capacity on account of the expansion of the Navy, and from January the first two terms of the course of 3½ years will be taken at the R.N. College at Greenwich, owing to lack of accommodation for the increased numbers.

RETURN OF THE AMPHION

The cruiser Amphion, Captain R. L. Burnett, O.B.E., which has been flagship on the Africa Station since her completion in 1936, is in Portsmouth Harbour. About July next the Amphion is to be transferred to the Royal Australian Navy and renamed the Perth. The flag of Vice-Admiral G. H. D'O. Lyon, C.B., the C-in-C, Africa Station, was transferred at Dakar on November 28 to the Neptune, Captain J. A. V. Morse, D.S.O., which is back at Simonstown.

GIBRALTAR LOCAL FLOTILLA

The destroyer Vanoc, Commander T. L. Bratt, to the Local Defence Flotilla at Gibraltar, is to be relieved by the Wishart, and will return to England at the end of January. Commander Bratt will transfer to the Wishart in command. The Bulldog, hitherto the 4th Flotilla, Home Fleet, is to replace the Wishart as attached destroyer to the aircraft-carrier Glorious, and will leave Sheerness for the Mediterranean this month.

ADVANCEMENT TO A.B.

Owing to the reduction of the sea service qualification for advancement to able seaman from 18 months to 15 months in normal cases and from 15 to 12 months in special cases, difficulties are being experienced over the attainment of this qualification.

Their Lordships have therefore decided that if in exceptional circumstances an ordinary seaman is unable, through no fault of his own to complete the period of nine months' sea service laid down in the regulations, this may, at the captain's discretion, be reduced to six months.

NAVAL APPOINTMENTS

The following appointments are made by the Admiralty:—

Capt. G. M. K. Keble-White, to Medway (Feb. 24), and to Medway, in command, and as Capt. (S), 4th Flotilla (undated); I. A. P. Macintyre, to Dolphin, as Chief Staff Officer to the R/A (S) (Feb. 20).

Surg. Cdr. F. L. H. MacDowell, L.R.C.P. and S., to President for care at Air Ministry (Dec. 12); F. E. Fitzmaurice, L.R.C.P. and S., appt. to Repulse cancelled.

WOMEN'S PAGE

OUTSTANDING WOMEN

Pearl Buck: Matrimony Versus Art

Only four women in the last 37 years have walked off with the £8,000 Nobel Prize for Literature. A few days ago, novelist Pearl Buck received the prize from the hands of King Gustav of Sweden. One of the world's best sellers, "The Good Earth" is in its 66th edition. It sent Pearl Buck rocketing to new fame when it won the Pulitzer Prize in 1931. Subsequently, it provided Luise Rainer and Paul Muni with their greatest screen roles. Another Buck's eighth book had a Chinese background like all her previous novels. The first to have a U.S. scene and earned her the Nobel Prize was "This Proud Heart."

Pearl S. Buck has had her adventures in art and matrimony. She was teaching English literature at Nanking University, where her husband, Dr. J. Lossing Buck, was Professor of Agriculture. When she wrote "East Wind, West Wind," it went the rounds of publishers throughout the United States before Richard J. Walsh recognised Mrs. Buck's undoubted talents. He called an immediate acceptance to China.

In 1935, Mr. and Mrs. Buck were divorced at Reno, while Publisher Walsh parted from his wife, Ruth. During the hearings Pearl and Ruth, inseparable friends, stayed together at Reno.

Five minutes after the former Mrs. Walsh had obtained her divorce, she was a guest at her ex-husband's Baptist wedding to the former Mrs. Buck. Homely Pearl Buck, daughter of American missionaries in China, was brought up in this complex land, and from her earliest years mixed with the Chinese almost as one of them.

In a profound understanding of their psychology, and her ability to be so "near them," she says, lies the secret of her immense success.

Although a missionary of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, she refused to believe that the heathen races were eternally damned unless they adopted Christianity. This got her into trouble with her superiors.

Owning a beautiful home in Pennsylvania, she has two daughters by her first marriage and has developed a fondness for adopting children.

REMBRANDT PORTRAIT SOLD TO AMERICAN

Rembrandt's "Portrait of Maarten Looter" was sold for 102,000 guilders at an Amsterdam auction recently to an unidentified American collector.

The picture brought three times that price a few years ago. It is a huge portrait of an aged man in simple 17th century dress.

HOUSEHOLD GODS

By Miss Yen Wei-tsing

Special to the "Hongkong Daily Press"

Different religious influences have been spreading among the Chinese, but the one which wins the hearts of most people is Buddhism, the belief in many gods. Each god has a kingdom and a function of its own. Presiding over the household life, are the Goddess of Mercy, Gods of Wealth, Kitchen God, "Dee Sheeng Pu Sah," and "Kar Dong Pu Sah." Many stories have been handed down regarding the heroic adventures, and the intolerable sufferings which they had done, and undergone, when they were on earth.

GODDESS OF MERCY

There is an interesting story relating to the "Goddess of Mercy." She was the third daughter of the King, Miao Tsong. According to old custom, her two elder sisters were all married early. Then it was the turn for the third daughter to get married. As she had already given up the temporal pleasures and devoted her entire attention to preparation for the next life, she refused to marry.

The King, however, thought of many plans to bend his daughter's determination, first by persuasion, then by oppression, but his plans had no effect on his daughter. He thought that his oppression might be too slight for her, so he sent the Princess to the temple, where she was asked to draw water and cook dinner for 500 monks. Even this seemed to be quite an easy task, for Heaven helped her by sending a dragon to bore a hole in the kitchen, which was full of water. When she went to cook, everything was ready for her.

TEMPLE FIRED

Finally, these wonderful deeds were found out by the King, who issued a mandate to burn down the temple. On hearing this, the monks were greatly scared. They begged the Princess to leave the place, but she insisted that there would be no danger. At last, the temple was set on fire and all the monks were distressed. Then she spat blood into Heaven, out of which a new temple fell. When this news reached the King, he was more furious than before. He ordered the men to kill his daughter, and let her be eaten by the tigers, yet these were fruitless.

As time went on, the King was attacked by leprosy. All the famous doctors were asked to cure his sickness, but none could do so. Later, there came a beggar monk, who said that he could cure the King. Though he was dirty and poor, the King gave him a trial. The monk said that the disease could only be cured by the ash of the burned hand, and the eye of a person who was on a certain mountain. The King obeyed.

FILIAL PIETY

Servants were sent out to search. They eventually found the desired hand and eye. When the Queen saw this, she recognised that the hand was her daughter's. Anywhere on the King's body that was touched by the ash of the Princess burned hand and eye was cured. Seeing both her untold sufferings and her filial piety to her cruel father, the people honoured her as the "Goddess of Mercy."

In some places, the worship takes place every day; in others worship takes place on the 1st and the 15th of every month. The ceremony of worshipping is to burn incense, offer dishes and fruits, and make bows before her.

Youth (24) DEFIES MOTHER, TAKES TO WIFE — Widow (42)

Defying mother's wishes, 24-year-old Henry Godfrey Kitchen recently married 42-year-old widow Mrs. Jane Rose Deans, mother of three children, at the Singapore Registry before Mr. G. Rawlings, Third Magistrate.

When Mr. Henry Kitchen left the Registry Office he was, of course, a husband—and automatically became the stepfather of his wife's three children, the eldest getting approaching 20.

Mr. Kitchen's mother was unaware that her son was going to wed Mrs. Deans until some time later.

"Henry will be sorry for this," she told reporters. "I forbade him to marry her, he is going against my wishes, and they both will be very sorry for this. I am terribly hurt that he should go and marry a widow—a woman so much older than he is."

When Mr. Kitchen was interviewed at his home a few days prior to the wedding, he declined to make any statement.

MAIDS DOFF CAPS

The British maid, after three centuries, has won a battle. She has discarded her cap.

The National Union of Domestic Workers has laid down this rule: "The wearing of caps should not be required."

The Union has laid down some other rules too. One is that maids should have contracts. Another is that the contract should state the precise name by which the maid wishes to be addressed.

Regulations of the Union indicate that it is preferable to call the maid "Miss Smith," for instance, rather than merely "Smith."

Limitation of hours, fixed and regular meal times and bedroom privacy are other regulations demanded by the Union.

It is further stipulated that girls over 18 must get 18 shillings a week if they "live in," and they must get two weeks' vacation.

VINEGAR

Its Household Uses

VINEGAR and water is a good mixture for cleaning furniture. It gives the furniture a nice polish and there is no fear of finger marks being left. Add enough vinegar to some warm water to give it an aromatic smell and dip a wash-leather into it. Then wring the leather till nearly dry and rub the furniture over with this. Vinegar and water is also good for cleaning windows, as flies will not settle there afterwards.

To clean a water-bottle or vacuum flask which has become discoloured, put in one tablespoonful of salt and two tablespoonfuls of vinegar. Shake well and then fill up with warm water and leave for an hour or so. Pour out the contents and rinse with clean water. Pure vinegar will remove hardwater marks from jugs and vases, as the vinegar dissolves the chalky deposit.

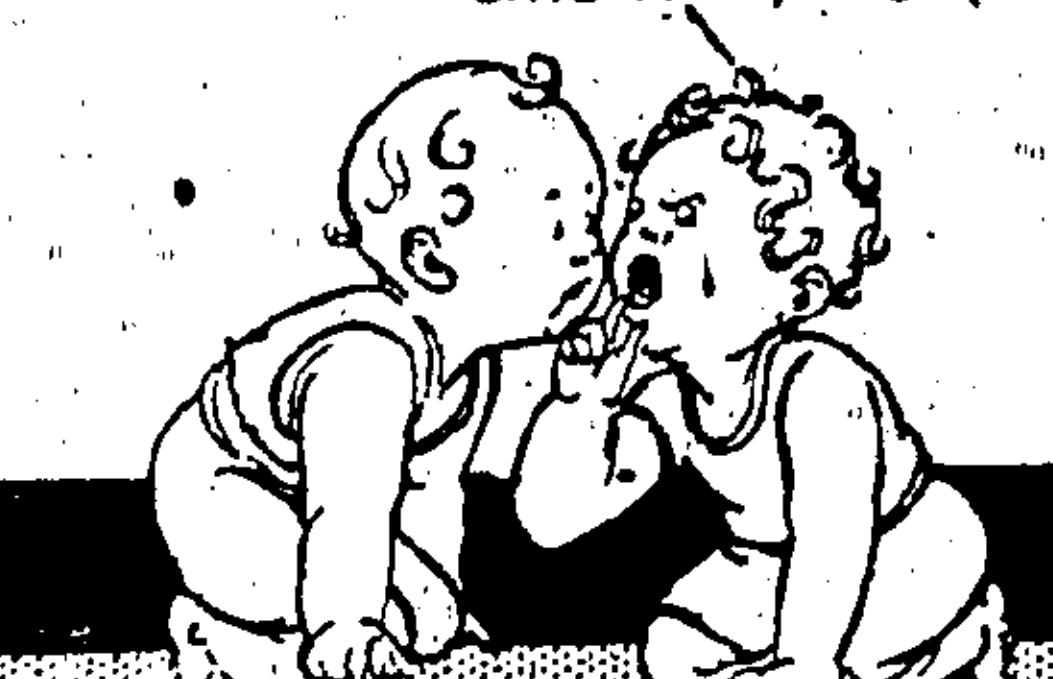

A good way of removing rusty screws is to apply a little vinegar, leaving it a few moments to penetrate before using the screwdriver. This method will prove effective when oil fails.

WANG CHING-WEI'S STATEMENT

PERPLEXITY is reported to exist in Tokyo concerning the events in Chinese politics which have been connected with the flight of Mr. Wang Ching-wei from Chungking and his open statement of disagreement with the Chinese Government. According to reports before the New Year's holidays, it was reported that the Japanese were seeking information of the circumstances of Mr. Wang's departure from coming to the conclusion whether there is anything more than the mere statement of Wang's opinion and whether there is more support for this opinion than is confined to Wang's immediate supporters.

CHINESE CIRCLES report considerable activity between Wang's followers and representatives of the Japanese both in Hanoi and in the Colony, so that it is now probable that doubts no longer exist in the minds of the Japanese as to Wang's intentions. It is, however, becoming clear that close connections have been maintained between Wang and the Japanese, ever since the commencement of hostilities. And this connection has also been maintained with German and Italian circles. It will be remembered that Mr. Chen Kung-po's visit to Signor Mussolini last year was followed by the Italian recognition of "Manchukuo." Chen Kung-po has been Wang's closest associate during the latter's chequered political career of the last decade.

THE CIRCUMSTANCES of Wang Ching-wei's departure from Chungking has led to the arrest of

Hello & Goodbye

—BY A.W. HYER—

A New Year is upon us, and from the prospectus of travel during 1939, business will be bigger and better for Hongkong. A few of the improvements and expansions listed for the coming months include Pan-American Airways' new Boeing seventy-two passenger flying boats, the first flight taking place at the end of February.

Java, China, Japan Line's new motorship will call on her maiden voyage in May.

The American President Line will have several new vessels on the round-the-world and trans-Pacific services by the middle of summer.

N.Y.K.'s steamers on the California-Orient service will be calling again by the middle of February.

The Japanese Government is requesting permission to enter Hongkong with their air service from Tokyo, Formosa, and Canton.

We hope to see a renewal of C.N.A.C. and Eurasia Aviation Corporation regular scheduled services in and out of Kai Tak before summer.

However, not only are the travel companies expanding, but new improvements which are connected with travel will take place before the end of the month.

The Hongkong and Kowloon Wharf and Godown Co., Ltd., will commence work on improving the docking and storing facilities on their property in Kowloon. Pier No. 3 will be completely repaired and rebuilt and new godowns will be erected opposite wharves 4 and 5.

President Taft

LAST FRIDAY evening, at 8 o'clock, we performed a jig on the pier waiting for the President

one of his immediate followers who, as Vice-Minister of Communications, placed an aeroplane at Wang's disposal. Reports emanating from the Capital indicate that Wang and his agents, in the face of waning influence in the intrigues of the nation, were conducting intrigues with Szechuenese leaders aimed against Chiang Kai-shek and Dr. H. H. Kung. Against the latter it is also reported that a manifesto was drawn up and submitted to the recent session of the People's Advisory Council. The manifesto was rejected as groundless. Wang Ching-wei then is reported to have withdrawn from the meetings of the Council.

INTERESTING TO many is the new schedule of the American President Line which will include stop-overs in Shanghai. During the next three months the President Coolidge will call in the Northern port on her outward and homeward voyages. In this same period the President Taft, Cleveland and Pierce will stop one day in this port on their outward trip.

WHEN THIS modern N.Y.K. steamer came into port on Thursday two very well-known residents of the Colony came home from Shanghai, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Grimm. Mr. Grimm, the Vice Manager of Calif-Asia Company was glad to be welcoming 1939 in Hongkong.

FRIDAY AT 8.30 A.M. this floating hotel of the Canadian Pacific brought many important and well-known visitors to our shores.

Mr. R. Grimshaw, a well-known gentleman about our town, and who is connected with Calbeck Macgregor and Co., Ltd., came down from the Shanghai office to take over duties with his firm in duties with his firm in Hongkong.

President of the Shanghai Football Association and a keen sportsman, Mr. Grimshaw's new residence with us receives an enthusiastic welcome.

Enjoying a round-the-world trip in leisurely manager are the handsome Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lipsett from Vancouver. Hongkong is one of the high points of their journey, and after a short visit with us, they will continue southward not arriving home before the summer.

Manila bound 7 p.m. Friday sailed the Empress of Japan. All hands were looking forward to a gay and merry New Year's Eve abroad.

Colonel and Mrs. S. T. Saunders and their two children certainly enjoyed their stay here and were given a royal send-off on their return to Manila.

Mr. and Mrs. Hagermann were equally besieged by friends when they departed for Manila after their visit here.

S.S. Nellore

MONDAY ONE P.M. the steamer Nellore came in from Australia and Manila after a rough voyage from the latter port, but her passenger list for our city was light.

Mrs. O. I. Waddell returned from a trip to Manila and Miss E. J. Evans and Mrs. F. M. Grahame were back from Sydney. These

CHINA STRONG, SAYS KUNG

"The Chinese people can look forward to the year which lies ahead with renewed confidence and hope," says Dr. H. H. Kung, President of the Executive Yuan and Minister of Finance, in a special New Year message to the "Hongkong Daily Press."

"In offering my greetings to my foreign friends and fellow-countrymen, I cannot help thinking how, in comparison with the strong financial position in which China finds herself at the end of more than eighteen months of war, Japan's position has been sadly shaken. Japan, in spite of her military advantages, is suffering beyond words, and this year will probably find her in a position vastly worse."

STRIKING FILM ATTRACTS MANY TO THE KING'S

Spectacle And Thrills In "The Drum"

Most heartily to be commended is the excellent film, "The Drum," now being screened at the King's Theatre, for it is without doubt one of the finest pictures we have seen for many a long day and a picture which will take much to excel.

Photographed in technicolor, this ambitious Alexander Korda picture is a British production and the star is the young Indian boy, Sabu, whose performance in "Elephant Boy" aroused widespread favourable comment.

Absolutely supported by Raymond Massey, whose impersonation of the scheming Prince Ghul was most convincing and deserves special mention; Roger Livesey, who plays the part of Captain Carruthers with vivacity and action; Valerie Hobson, as Mrs. Carruthers, who plays her part with sympathy and charm; Desmond Tester, who plays the part of Bill Holder, the British drummer boy, with great skill; and others. Sabu gives another brilliant performance worthy of an actor of many years of experience.

EXCITING SCENES

Dealing as it does with warfare and intrigue on the Northwest Frontier of India, there is plenty of scope for movement and realistically exciting scenes, and every possible advantage has been taken to bring to vivid life in colour the grand situations of A.E.W. Mason's thrilling story.

The picture is not only remarkable for presenting some of the best battle scenes ever seen in the screen, but it covers every side of Indian Army life and shows social life at the Residency and life in the barracks, a polo match between the British officers and Indian Princes, regimental manoeuvres, and the Indian ceremonial to the new governor, as well as something of the splendid work done by the Indian regiments, particularly those composed of Sikhs.

No attempt will be made in this review to describe the story but suffice to say that seeing this wonderful picture cannot help coming away satisfied.—W.H.C.

MAJ. H.A. CUMMINS

Death Of Professor Of Botany

LONDON, Jan. 2 (Reuter).—The death has occurred of Major Henry Alfred Cummins, C. M. G., M. D., R. A. M. C. (retired pay), Emeritus Professor of Botany, University College, Cork, aged 75 years.

He was a Fellow of the Linnean Society of London and served in the Sikh Expedition in 1889 and Ashanti, 1895-96.

Two ladies will be stopping at the Hongkong Hotel for a visit.

WEDNESDAY NOON we will have the Pan-American Clipper coming in with visitors from America and the South.

The Imperial Airways have been flying in and out of Kai Tak but the mails are still occupying first selection, though one or two passengers arrived and departed in the past week. Next week, officials report, passenger traffic will be back to normal.

PAX JAPONICA—A LA WANG CHING-WEI

The Grave Digger—For Himself

THE BETRAYAL OF THE CHINESE PEOPLE by Wang Ching-wei comes as no surprise to Young China. By watchfulness and refusal to be tricked by high-sounding words, Young China has been prepared for the exit of Wang Ching-wei from Chinese Nationalist politics. But still that same watchfulness will continue over Wang and his associates wherever they may go. The past of Wang Ching-wei and his connections with the Japanese, the Germans and the Italians, are catching up with him. The totalitarian gendarmes are as ruthless with their friends as democratic regimes are merciful to their enemies. Were it not for that mercy, Wang Ching-wei would not still be able to put words on paper—even if those words draw the condemnation of the entire Chinese People upon their author.

From the time that Wang Ching-wei was shot and wounded in 1935, and his retirement in December of that year to the fateful December, 1937, he remained in Europe where he maintained close contact with the German and Italian leaders. He took part in the discussions which decided upon resistance to Japan's aggression but, again was almost the cause of another incident in the Council Chambers by his defeatist insistence that "resistance means sacrifice to the last man." A respected military leader, who advocated fighting Japan, is reported to have drawn his sword to remove Wang Ching-wei from the possibility of being that last man.

Sabotage and intrigue has been the forte of Wang Ching-wei during his entire career as a politician in China. The estrangement between the leaders of the Nineteenth Route Army was reported to have arisen through the machinations of Wang.

At the conference at which decision was taken to resist the Japanese at Shanghai in 1932, Wang Ching-wei concurred in the decision of the majority. They were Chiang Kai-shek, Dr. Sun Fo and Eugene Chen.

Later, it transpired that Wang had informed the leaders of the Nineteenth Route Army, Tsai Ting-kai, Chiang Kwang-nai and Chen Ming-shu, that Chiang Kai-shek would sabotage their resistance. Recriminations followed which the Generalissimo could not understand. Notwithstanding, Central Government forces came to the assistance of the gallant Nineteenth Route Army. But at the earliest opportunity Wang Ching-wei accepted the Japanese terms for an armistice.

At the fighting of the Great Wall in which Feng Yu-shiang, Sung Chieh-yuan, Fu Tso-yi and others distinguished themselves, the result of Wang Ching-wei's visit to the fighting front was to advise the immediate cessation of resistance and the acceptance of the conditions of the Japanese embodied in the Tangku Truce. These conditions practically opened North China to the military occupation by the Japanese.

Wang Ching-wei has never believed in resistance. His brave statements at meetings of the People's Political Council which he hoped to dominate and turn into a weapon for achieving his own ends did not ring true in the ears of Young China. To Wang Ching-wei "resistance" was synonymous with "sacrifice" and did not include victory for the Chinese people. His solution for the Sino-Japanese problem was a "reasonable" one in which the regime in existence in "Manchukuo" might be extended throughout China, possibly with Wang Ching-wei in the role of Henry Pu Yi.

In my travels throughout China, I have visited many museums in schools and universities dedicated to the Chinese revolution. In at least three, I have been gravely shown an exhibit. It consisted of a set of Chinese books tied together but some of the books had been cut away inside to form the receptacle for either a smuggler or conspirator. The inscription in each case was "Presented by Wang Ching-wei"—and further "This was the set of books in which Wang Ching-wei concealed the bomb with which he tried to kill the Manchurian official." Alas, the bombings of the Japanese have destroyed these authentic relics of Wang Ching-wei's revolutionary activities. There will be no tangible proof that he ever participated in active revolutionary work against the Manchus.

Wang Ching-wei's betrayal of the Chinese People is part of the natural gravitation of the unstable "Right-wing" elements within and without the Kuomintang Party and the Government away from the Holy struggle that is now being waged by our race under the leadership of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and the eradication of avarice, corruption, incompetence and nepotism.

BY PERCY CHEN

life blood out of the tormentors of our people. And in this fight China is rendering inestimable service to the cause of Democracy.

Wang Ching-wei may be without his scruples, but he is no fool. There are reports that he will go to Canton to urge the Japanese to withdraw their troops so that he may set up a separate government. Even his misinterpretation of Kono's terms cannot permit him to think that the Japanese military Fascists will so easily withdraw their troops from South China for the sake of Wang's youthful bluish and fresh complexion. The Japanese are in South China as part of the war plan of World Fascism. They are there to threaten and menace Hongkong, Indo-China, and Burma.

If Wang Ching-wei were to take steps to assist the Japanese in South China, then he is an active agent working for the Fascist Powers. But even if he were to succeed against the dictators of the Japanese militarists, would it be possible for him to make greater progress than the picked units of the Japanese Kwantung Army have made against the warriors of Yu Han-mou, Tsai Ting-kai, Li Hon-wan, and Chang Fa-kwei. And which of these Chinese generals would follow Wang on his self-chosen road to perdition?

Another suggestion is that Wang Ching-wei will go to Nanking or Peiping to become a puppet. Such a course for him is not to be excluded, and his expulsion from the Kuomintang by the Party would point to the anticipation of his intentions. But although personal ambitions and desire for power may encourage Wang Ching-wei to play the role of Wu San-kwei, who rode on a white charger and opened the frontiers of China to an alien conqueror, his lot as a puppet of the Japanese will still be unenvied.

But in free China, Young China will learn the lesson that Wang Ching-wei has taught us and the watchfulness which we have exercised over politicians will continue. The elimination of traitors is the duty of the people. Each one eliminated is a victory for Nationalism and a victory over the Japanese Secret Service.

Peace talk is treason. It is anti-Chinese. And is anti-Party as well as anti-Government. It is rebellious.

Unperceived to us we have reached the turning point of the war. The flight of Wang Ching-wei is the result of the victorious advance of the masses of the people, of the intellectuals, of the merchants, the bankers, of the workers and the peasants. Before the advance of the National Front intrigue and sabotage of the Wang Ching-wei are being swept aside. China stands united. Now for victory under the leadership of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and the eradication of avarice, corruption, incompetence and nepotism.

MR. SUNG TENG-MAN

Mr. Sung Teng-man, who receives the Imperial Service Medal, retired from Government service a few months ago.

Joining the Police Department as an Interpreter in July, 1901, Mr. Sung became First Clerk and Interpreter, Land Office, New Territories, on January 1, 1904.

A year later he was appointed First Clerk, Medical Department, becoming Accountant on April 1, 1918.

On March 1, 1925, he was appointed Higher Class Clerk and on October 2, 1935, was appointed Director of the Widows' and Orphans' Pensions.

On the occasion of his retirement from the Medical Department, Mr. Sung was the recipient of a farewell gift from his colleagues.

FRANCO FORCES TAKE CUBELLS

Main Objective In Balaguer Sector

SARAGOSSA, Jan. 2. (Reuter).—The Nationalists yesterday occupied Cubells, which has been their main objective in the Balaguer sector. The capture followed two days' aircraft and artillery bombardment.

It is claimed that the Republicans have thus lost their main line of communication with their forces in north Catalonia.

The Nationalists claim that they are exploiting their success by advancing along the Balaguer-Seo de Urgel road, supported by tanks and cavalry.

Successes are also claimed on other fronts, and it is stated that the total number of prisoners taken during the present offensive is now 12,000.

It is claimed that the Republicans are retreating wherever they are hard-pressed, giving no inkling of where they will make a sustained stand.

WANG EXPELLED

Konoye's declaration, which was aimed at the complete extermination of the Chinese nation. Wang's action, the resolution declares, is tantamount to surrender and will in effect disturb the very foundations of the nation.

BOUND BY POLICY
The resolution states that Wang's action and utterances are not only bitterly resented by the Central Party but will not be tolerated by the nation, and reiterates that China's war of resistance was started because of her desire to save herself from extinction.

The resolution declares that during this time of war, the nation is bound by war-time policy, and no member of the Party is permitted to act in contravention of the Party's official decision.

It is beyond dispute, the resolution states, that Wang's action was in opposition to Party discipline and would endanger the Party and the country.

NOT UNEXPECTED
CHUNGKING, Jan. 2. (Reuter).—While it was not unexpected that Wang Ching-wei should make efforts to negotiate for peace, well-informed circles here express surprise that he should have made such a move at this time.

FOUR FACTORS
Chinese circles consider that China's position to-day is very strong; in fact stronger than at any previous period during the Sino-Japanese hostilities. This they ascribe to four factors, namely:—

1. The Chinese Army has been completely reorganised and rededicated for prolonged resistance;
2. China's financial position is much more secure as the result of credits from Britain and America;
3. China's international position is stronger with Britain and America becoming sceptical of Japanese assurances to protect third party interests in China;
4. China is now more united than ever with the southwest and northwest provinces solidly behind the Generalissimo in their determination to resist Japan's attempts to penetrate deeper into China's interior. Conditions for such resistance are claimed to be favourable.

LENIENCY ADVOCATED

CHUNGKING, Jan. 2. (Reuter).—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek advocated leniency towards Wang Ching-wei at the meeting of the Kuomintang leaders yesterday, proposing that Wang be given friendly advice first, then a warning and finally to be expelled. Other leaders, however, unanimously demanded his expulsion and the resolution was therefore adopted.

An official mandate has also been issued for the arrest and punishment as traitors of all participating in Japanese-sponsored regimes.

MEASURES SUPPORTED

The Chinese relief organisations of Hongkong headed by the H.K. Branch of the National Women's Relief Association, yesterday sent a telegram to the National Government and Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek voicing their approval of the measures taken to depose Wang Ching-wei of membership in the Kuomintang and to dismiss him from all the government offices. The organisations pledged their support for the policy of determined resistance.

NEW YEAR'S EVE AT HOTELS

The Gloucester Hotel was once again the scene of much merriment on New Year's Eve when over a thousand revellers attended. Everybody went away thoroughly satisfied and much credit is due to Mr. P. Chesser and his band of workers for the splendid arrangements.

The Hongkong Hotel also provided excellent fare and entertainment for diners.

GERMANY'S CLAIM FOR SUBMARINE PARTY

Craft Can Be Dispatched To Mediterranean Easily

PARIS, Jan. 2. (Reuter).—Germany's claim for submarine parity with Great Britain has drawn wide comment from the press, and it is the general opinion that Germany's intention is to help Italy by building submarines which can be sent to the Mediterranean more easily than surface craft.

It is also the general opinion that submarines can be used to break any future blockade and hamper British shipping.

The "Figaro" says that Germany is building a large number of small submarines which can hide in the North Sea and the English Channel, whereas other naval powers are building large submarines.

Newspapers generally take the view that the German move will arouse British opinion to the danger of a possible threat to British naval supremacy.

DISCUSSIONS IN BERLIN

LONDON, Jan. 1. (Reuter).—A Foreign Office communiqué on Germany's announcement of her decision to build submarines on a parity with Great Britain states that a meeting between Britain and Germany took place on Friday at the German Ministry of Marine. The conversations were held in a most friendly atmosphere and the representatives of the two Governments expressed their views on the points at issue.

Admiral Cunningham, head of the British mission to Germany, has returned by air to London, and will prepare a report on the British discussions for submission to the Foreign Office. This will be communicated to Mr. Chamberlain and Lord Halifax, who are both holidaying in Yorkshire.

It is presumed that during the discussions the British Government asked the reason for the German desire to build more submarines.

ENTERTAINMENT AT POLICE CLUB

A taste of fairy land was provided at the Police Recreation Club, yesterday when the Club ground, gaily decorated with flags and colourful electric lights, was converted into a carnival—a large number of kiddies with their parents participating in different games and other sports at the annual children's Xmas Tree party.

Mrs. T. H. King, wife of the Commissioner of Police, distributed the prizes to the successful competitors.

Santa Claus (Mr. D. W. Manton) was besieged by the kiddies when he appeared during the afternoon, with presents in his bag, while Mr. W. Ward, contributed considerably towards the fun of the party by amusing the kiddies with his comical antics as a clown.

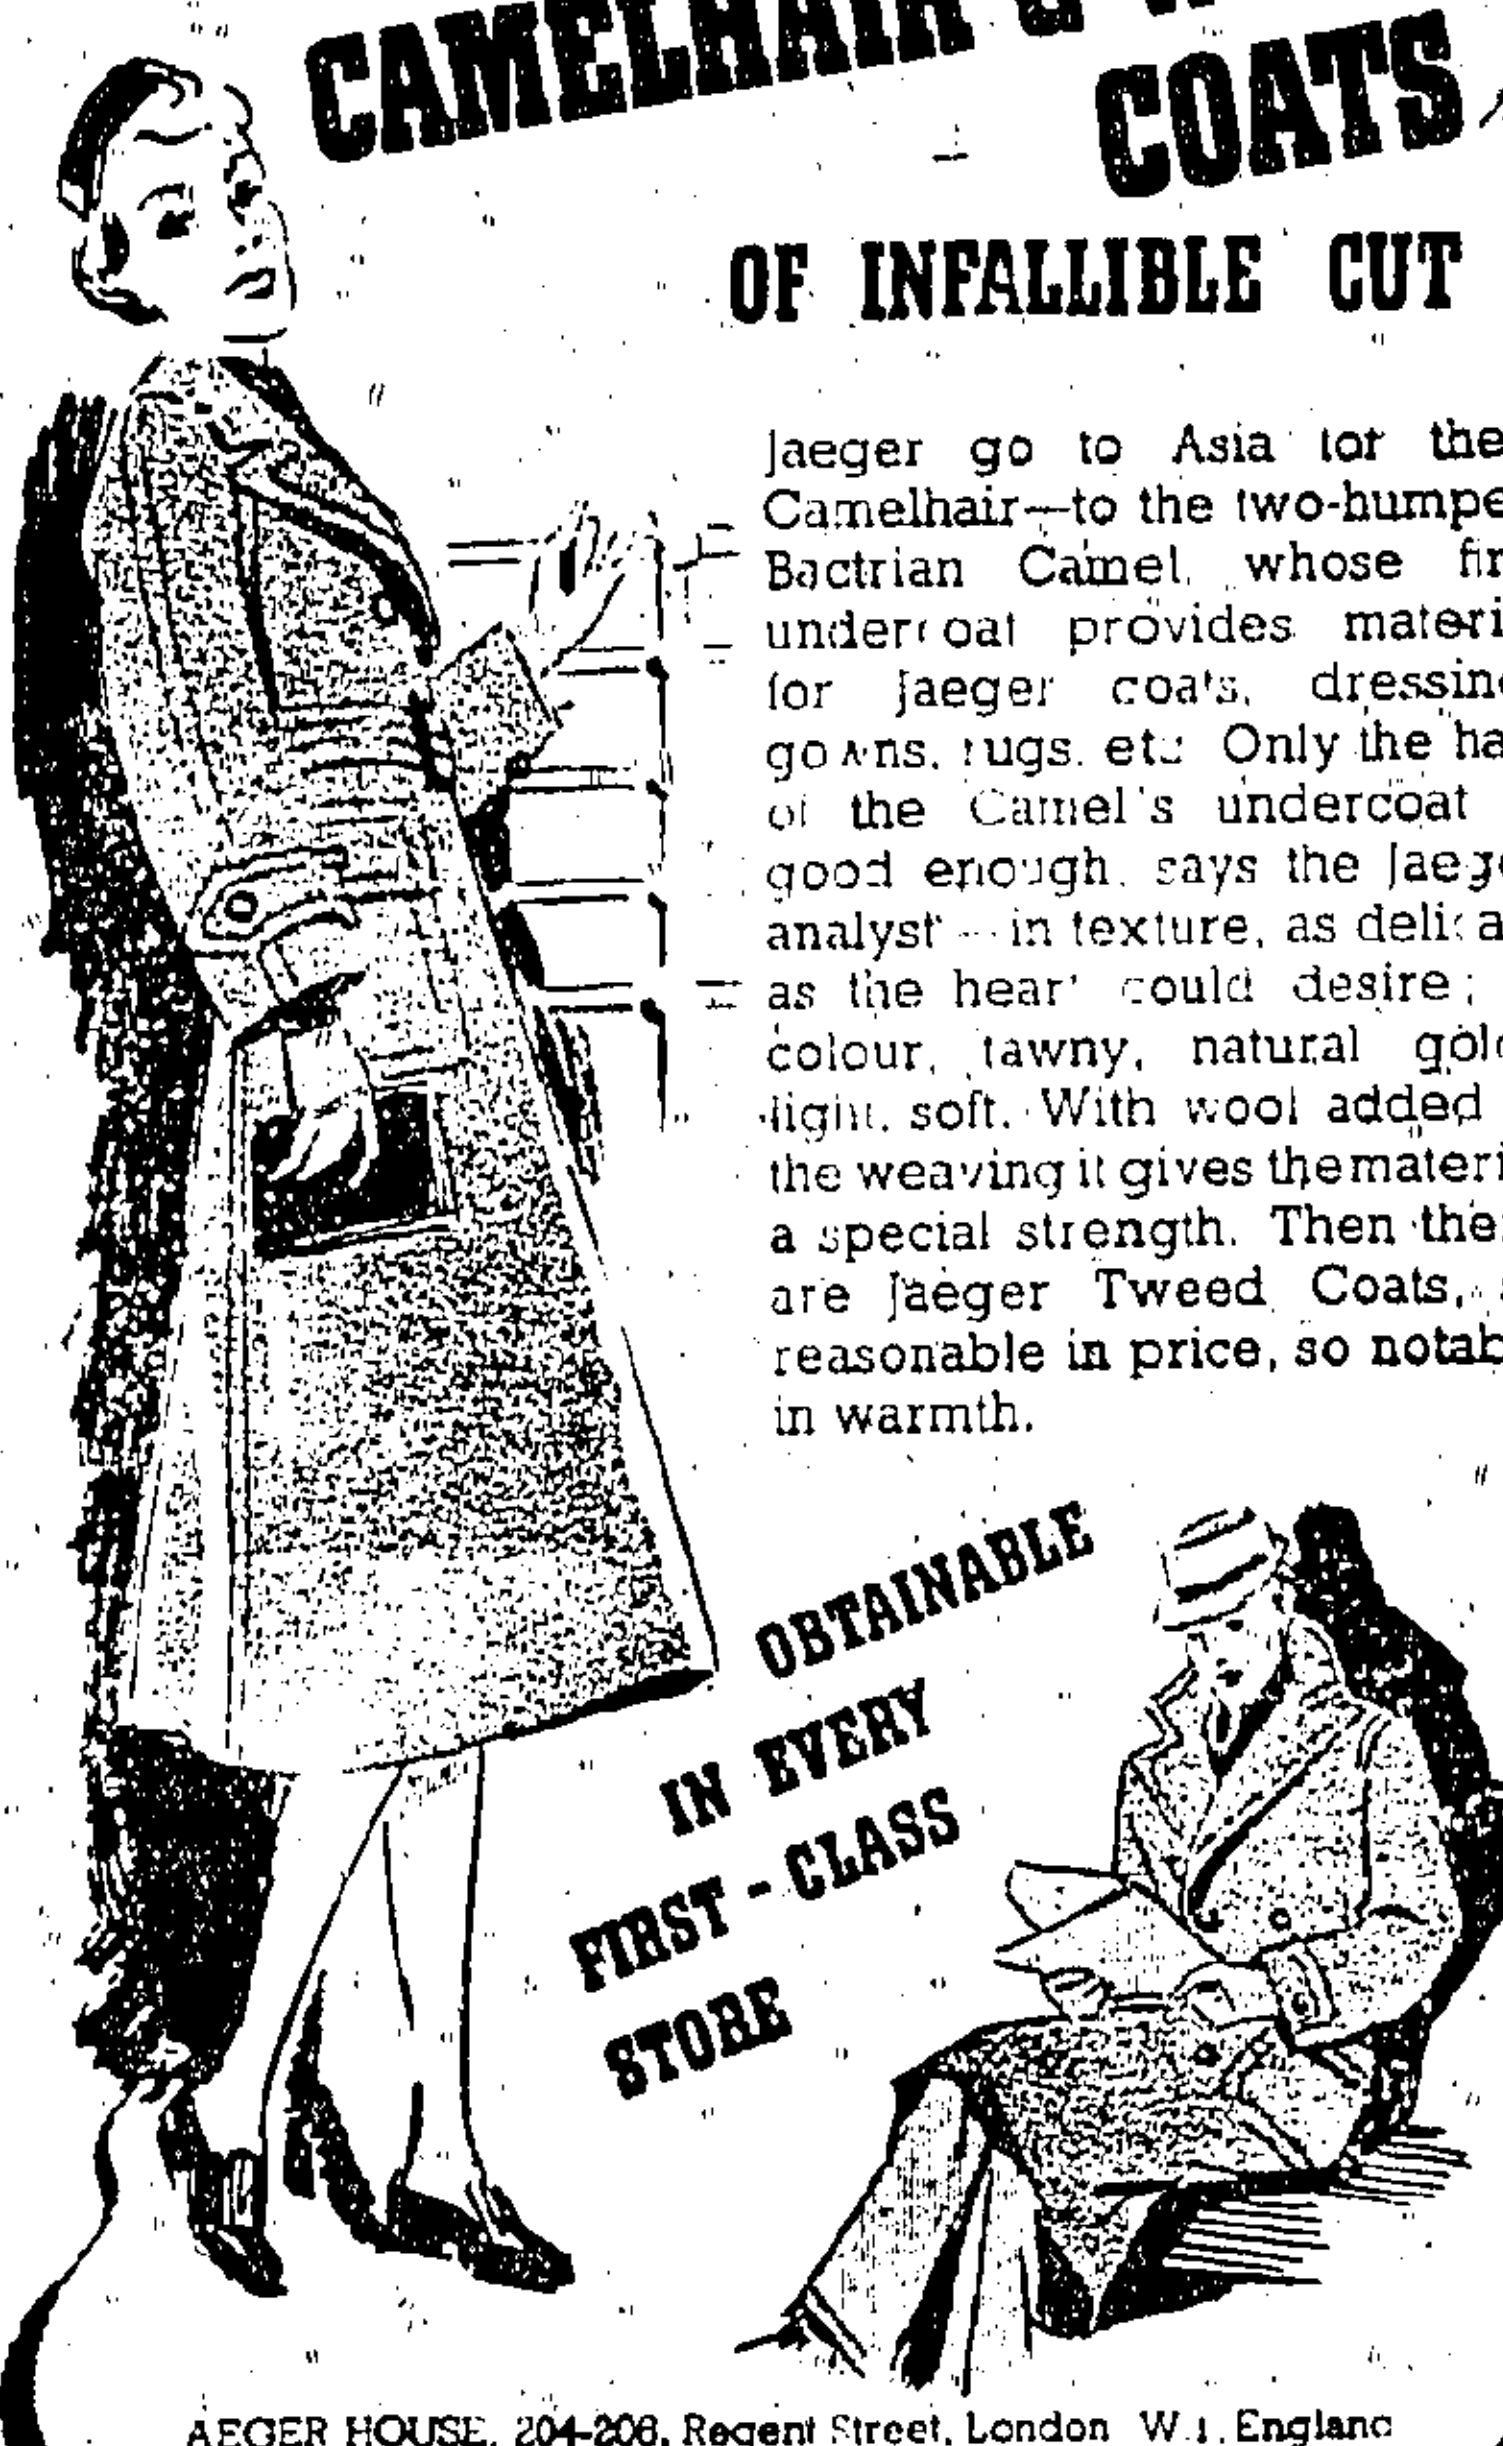

The function concluded with dancing till mid-night with the Middlesex Dance Band in attendance.

At a special session yesterday, the Chamber passed the third reading of the Budget estimates for 1939 by 372 votes to 229.

JAEGER

CAMELHAIR & WOOL COATS

OF INFALLIBLE CUT

Jaeger go to Asia for their Camelhair—to the two-humped Bactrian Camel, whose fine undercoat provides material for Jaeger coats, dressing gowns, rugs, etc. Only the hair of the Camel's undercoat is good enough, says the Jaeger analyst—in texture, as delicate as the hair could desire, in colour, tawny, natural gold, light, soft. With wool added in the weaving it gives the material a special strength. Then there are Jaeger Tweed Coats, so reasonable in price, so notable in warmth.

Hongkong Stock Market Closes Steady

YEAR'S ACTIVITY IN ICE HOUSE STREET REVIEWED

BY C. A. L. RICKETT

Secretary, Hongkong Sharebrokers' Association

In spite of a year of wars and unrest in Europe and the Far East, the local market has remained remarkably steady with a general upward tendency in price levels. The uncertainty of world politics has caused setbacks but it can be noted, by comparing prices quoted at the beginning and at the end of the year, that substantial advances have been made throughout listed stocks.

The year opened with a feeling of uncertainty regarding the threat of invasion in South China, resulting in a quiet market and restricted business. Later, however, with a lack of sellers, prices showed a tendency to harden. Increased dividends declared in the early part of the year assisted to maintain a quiet but steady demand for shares. With the close of the first three months of the year, prices showed appreciable improvement on an increased demand, holders continuing to be reluctant to sell.

Towards the end of the half-year, profit-taking resulted in some recession in prices, but all shares offering were readily absorbed, indicating the healthy state of the market.

The threat of the Japanese invasion in South China became more acute at the beginning of June and resulted in a quieter undertone, as buyers were inclined to hold back awaiting the trend of events. Prices were inclined to recede, but as holders of shares displayed no anxiety to sell, the undertone firmed up once again.

PRICES FALL

At the beginning of September, the strained political situation in Europe began to influence the trend of the market and prices weakened. Trading became dull and the market featureless. The easing of the political situation at the end of this month was counter-balanced, however, by the spreading of hostilities to South China.

With a marked absence of support, prices yielded readily. There was no indication of panic, however, but a feeling of nervousness was apparent in the increase of selling orders. All shares offering

BOARD TRADING STARTS TO-DAY

Board trading will be put into operation for the first time in the history of Ice House Street when the Hongkong Stock Exchange resumes business to-day after the holidays.

A large blackboard has been installed in the Exchange, on which brokers desirous of buying or selling will mark the prices at which they are willing to transact business under the respective stocks in which they are interested.

By this means, the investing public will have the opportunity of seeing at a glance the trend of prices and the volume of business throughout the day, and much of the previous "blind" business will be eliminated.

JAPANESE REQUEST REJECTED

CHUNGKING, Jan. 1 (Central).—A Japanese request to the Great Northern Telegraph Co., the Eastern Extension, Australasia and China Telegraph Co., and the Commercial Pacific Cable Co. in Shanghai to deposit their monthly surplus in the Yokohama Specie Bank was rejected by the three telegraph companies, according to a Shanghai message.

FINANCES OF SIAM

The Siamese Government's Financial Adviser's Report for 1938-39 shows an estimated revenue of Ticals 109,425,040, and an ordinary expenditure which is Ticals 27,952 less. But the capital expenditure is Ticals 22,108,524, and that rather worries Mr. W. A. M. Doll, the Adviser. This capital expenditure was Ticals 23,785,321 last year. It is being met mainly from the Treasury Reserve.

On March 31, last that Reserve stood at Ticals 57 millions; and Mr. Doll holds that it should be maintained at Ticals 47 millions as the country's nest egg against a national emergency. That leaves only Ticals 10 millions.

Capital expenditure is made on national defence, railways, irrigation, the co-operative movement, highways, cottage industries, vocational schools, paper and sugar factories etc. For this purpose there is no other source of capital in the country, there being a striking absence of any private accumulation of liquid capital in Siamese hands.

FOREIGNERS MAINLY CHINESE

The tradesmen and businessmen of Siam are foreigners, mainly Chinese, and they send much of their profits to their own countries. In these circumstances, to ensure solvency, Siam will have for some time to finance such expenditure out of the ordinary budget surpluses.

As Mr. Doll puts it, "No sacrifice in the economic field is too great a price to pay for the preservation of the solvency of the nation."

Attention has been drawn to the fact that eight and a half years ago Sir Edward Cook wrote in his last report: "So far as finances are concerned, Siam can face whatever the future may bring, with a reasonable assurance of freedom from anxiety and of further growth in her prosperity."

TOBACCO FROM BULGARIA

Bulgaria will have an exportable surplus of about 33,000,000 pounds of tobacco from the crop of 1933, a quantity which is less than for the preceding year, but which is reported to be of much better quality.

It is reported that since Germany does not appear to be in the market for Bulgarian tobacco this year, an endeavour is being made to dispose of this tobacco in Egypt, Poland and Czechoslovakia.

ENCOURAGING NATIVE GOODS

Efforts Of Chinese Government

Commencing this year, the Ministries of Finance and Economics of the Chinese Government will jointly carry out a plan whereby the sale of Chinese native products will be greatly increased in foreign countries in order to create a more favourable international trade balance.

Already the Government has set aside $50,000,000 for the purpose. The money will be used to accelerate the efficiency of production of native goods which will be exempted from paying export duty. It is hinted that the Foreign Trade Committee will also help in making the plan a success. The committee is credited with having already decreased the import of foreign goods considerably.

One report states that the figure for imported foreign goods in 1938 was reduced by 80 per cent, as compared with the figures for 1922, when the peak import figures showed that China bought $867,191,000 worth of foreign goods more than she exported.

UNDER STATE CONTROL

As part of the programme, many enterprises have been placed under state control, and provincial authorities have been ordered to do whatever they can to help small industries and farmers. It is expected that commencing the production of native goods will be considerably increased this year, and they will be purchased by the Government so that they will be exported directly to foreign countries.

The reported control by the Japanese of the export of Chinese cotton in occupied areas has prompted the Chinese Government to encourage cotton growing in Kwangsi and Yunnan. The Bureau of Agricultural Experiments has sent representatives to these provinces to investigate cotton planting there. It is said that quantities of American cotton seeds have been planted.

TREASURY BILLS

LONDON, Jan. 1 (BWS).—Total amount applied for in tenders for $35,000,000 Treasury bills was $74,150,000. The amount allotted in bills at three months was $31,000,000. The average rate per cent was 13/8.88d, as compared with 22/0.45d a week ago.

BID TO REVIVE LANCASHIRE COTTON INDUSTRY

Released last week was a bid to revive the industry by the Joint Committee of Cotton Trade Organisations, a long memorandum on present difficulties, together with the amended draft of a proposed Cotton Industry Enabling Bill, which the Committee believes might enable shattered markets to be rebuilt.

BARTER SYSTEM ADVOCATED

Preventing Loss Of Balkan Market

Unless democratic countries adopt Germany's barter trading technique, the Reich will soon completely control trade in central and eastern Europe, according to opinions of foreign economic experts made public by the U.S. National Industrial Conference Board.

"Germany," a report by the board on the un-named foreign experts' findings says, "having already absorbed Austria and parts of Czechoslovakia, is now cementing her political and economic bonds with Hungary, Poland, Yugoslavia and the Balkan states. Since these countries, united as a German economic bloc, can produce practically all the primary agricultural and industrial commodities their trade with western Europe and the Americans may soon be replaced by commerce between themselves."

MUST SCRAP POLICY

The United States and other countries can avert the loss of these important markets only by scrapping their present policy of extending credit primarily for the sale of their own goods. Instead, they must adopt the German barter system of first agreeing to buy foreign goods, and then offering their own goods in exchange.

In addition, the democracies must lower their tariff barriers against imports from fascist countries and conclude reciprocal trade agreements if they are to compete for their share of central and eastern European commerce, according to the report.

ARGENTINA WAGES WAR ON LOCUSTS

Ravages of locusts have caused such heavy damage in Argentina that the President has asked for an additional appropriation of $3,240,000 to combat the pests.

He announced in Buenos Aires that the money would be used to purchase nearly 27,000,000 feet of corrugated iron barriers, 5,000 flame throwers, chemicals and other accessories. The barriers will cost nearly $2,000,000.

In addition, the farmers have purchased nearly 135,000,000 feet of corrugated sheets in the last five years to be used as barriers. The President pointed out that eventually at least 27,000,000 feet of barriers would be bought yearly.

Hong Kong, 28th Dec., 1938. [2061]

When the Committee, at the request of the Prime Minister, first drafted a Bill for presentation to Parliament last spring, its proposals met with strong resistance from some sections of the industry which fought bitterly against any proposals for pools, quotas and variable subsidies. In the amended Bill, most of these features survive.

The memorandum asserts that the main cause of the traders' plight is the commercial methods adopted by the totalitarian States in their attempts to oust other nations from their old-established markets.

CAPITAL DISSIPATED

As the Committee sees the problem, Lancashire has been dissipating its capital and reserves in a hopeless struggle to quote lower prices than its foreign competitors. To meet this menace properly, the Bill proposes that the entire resources of the industry be mobilised and unified. It will enable prices to be stabilised and prevent undercutting.

How badly bold measures are needed was shown in the annual report of Horrocks, Crewdson and Co. Ltd., dozen of the cotton trade. A profit of £26,885 in 1937 had been turned into a trading loss of £49,525.

URGENT WARNING

The Committee gave the urgent warning: "Unless the Bill reaches the Statute Book early in 1939, Lancashire may have passed beyond the possibility of recovery by the measures now proposed."

Critics point out that cotton's decline dated back to a time when totalitarianism was a rarity, and competition in the main came from other countries. Biggest increase in exports had come, not from Germany and Italy, but from Japan and India.

TWO MILLION SURPLUS

Hongkong Treasury figures released on Saturday, and covering the period January 1 to November 30, reveal that a surplus revenue of well over $2,000,000 is now assured.

Total revenue to November 30 was $33,536,340 (against the estimate for the whole year of $30,254,920) and expenditure totalled $31,198,177.09 (against the year's estimates of $33,379,549).

Under all heads of revenue except the Harbour Office, there has been a substantial increase on the estimates.

November's figures of revenue showed an increase on November of last year of some $300,000, in spite of the sharp falling off in K.C.R. and P.O. receipts.

NAVY'S SEVEN WICKETS
WIN OVER CLUBWhitmarsh Unlucky To Miss
Century By Single

(By "TAC")

A magnificent fighting first innings, in which he carried his bat and missed scoring a century by a single run and a match-winning second knock, by Captain Whitmarsh, R.M., featured the Triangular Tournament match between the Royal Navy and the Hongkong Cricket Club, by winning which by seven wickets yesterday the former has annexed the series for this season.

Whitmarsh figured in a sixth wicket stand of 94 with Commander Lees (58), the latter going in when five wickets had fallen for only 49 runs, and in a last-wicket partnership of 45 with P.O. Paxton. During this last stand Whitmarsh, while hitting anything overpitched, nursed the bowling carefully, but Paxton was caught by Alec Pearce, fielding close in, with the total at 197 and Whitmarsh's own score 99.

Going in again 99 runs in arrears the Club (who had been shot out for 88 on Saturday by Marine Moors and P.O. Paxton) made a creditable showing, thanks largely to Harry Owen Hughes and John Pearce. Owen Hughes scored 81 in a captain's innings, and Pearce helped, with 42, the pair figuring in a fifth-wicket stand.

NAVY RETAINS
TROPHYRugger Win Over
The Club

One of the most thrilling exhibitions of Rugby football witnessed in many years was seen at Happy Valley on Saturday, when Navy defeated Club in the deciding game in the Triangular Tournament. Navy retaining the Cup for the second year. The final score was 14 points to three.

Elliott, in Navy's three-quarter line, was in his best form and proved a constant source of worry to the Club forwards.

Stevens at back likewise gave a grand display with Askwith also much in the limelight.

Bidwell and MacGrath, for the Club deserve mention, while Cessford and Grievie showed good understanding.

Anderson was penalised for off-side and Watson registered Club's opening points. Their lead, was short lived, as, following a scrum-mage, Club was penalised for "feet-ups" in the scrum. Elliott made no mistake with the spot-kick. At half time the score was three points all.

After the interval, Elliott punting the ball in mid-field, saw Bidwell and MacGrath missing the leather, and Askwith, taking the ball in his stride, scored a brilliant try. Elliott increased the lead by the conversion. Askwith registered again shortly afterwards, close to the flag-line. Elliott failed with the kick.

Skelton placed Navy further in the lead with a try after gathering the ball from the scrum.

The teams were:—

Club:—M. W. MacGrath; G. K. Chadwick, H. D. Bidwell (Captain), W. E. Grievie, D. H. Stewart; F. Cessford, J. R. Henderson; K. A. Watson, K. W. Salter, C. M. Stark; J. S. Dunnett, W. E. Peers; H. W. E. Heath, A. J. G. Taylor and W. B. Richardson.

Royal Navy:—Pay Lieut. Stevens (Kend); Lieut. (E) Lewis (Birmingham); P. O. Askwith (Dainty); Lieut. Skelton (Midway); Lieut. Walters (Midway); Lieut. Elliott (Eagle); Lieut. Talbot (Midway); Lt. Boddington (Midway); Mr. Witherden (Duncan); Ldg. Sea. Romans (Eagle); Sub. Lt. (A) Hain (Eagle); Lieut. Darling (Midway); Lieut. Ogle (Midway); Lieut. Anderson (Midway) and Lieut. Griffiths (Midway).

LADIES' SOFTBALL
RESULTSThe following are the results of Ladies' League Softball matches played at King's Park yesterday:—
Wildcats 19, Cubs 18; Wahoes 28, Baby Panthers 8; Recreio Ladies 19, Canadian Chinese 5.SENIOR SHIELD WINS
FOR SAINTS & POLICENavy Unlucky To Lose

With the aid of three veteran players, St. Joseph's emerged winners in the second round of the Senior Shield match when they played the Navy at Causeway Bay yesterday. The game was of a higher standard than seen previously when the above sides met. Gosano and Beltrao both scored, the latter's goal, scored in fine manner, deciding the game. Remedios played a sterling game at right back.

Navy had an equal share of the play and were unlucky not to have registered more goals when they had the opportunity.

The game opened at a fast pace and there were brisk exchanges. After twenty minutes, Jones netted the opening goal from a pass by Thorburn. Shortly afterwards he caught Marques napping.

Leading by two goals Navy put on pressure and for a period the Saints' goal was the target of the opposing forwards.

GOSANO'S EQUALISER
Leonard reduced arrears from a rebound which hit the cross-piece. From a corner kick by Alves, Gosano netted the equaliser. The score at half time was two goals all.

After the interval, mid-field play dominated. Both custodians were tested repeatedly and many brilliant saves were seen.

Towards the end of the final half Beltrao scored a fine goal following a corner kick to give St. Joseph's the right of entering the next round of the Senior Shield.

The teams were:

NAVY: MacAllister; Bellis, Fisher; Honeywell, Dixon, Still; Armstrong, Thorburn, Jones, Hunt and Betts.
ST. JOSEPH'S: Marques; Remedios, Souza; Hussian, Beltrao, Woo; Castilho, Leonard, A. V. Gosano, Gomes and Alves.POLICE DEFEAT
CLUB

A scrappy and interesting game was seen at Happy Valley yesterday when the Police defeated the Club by the odd goal in five, in the second round of the Senior Shield. The deciding point came in the first half of extra time.

Club held a two clear goal lead at half time but allowed the Police to score twice before the end of the second half.

Strange and Fowler both netted after 15 minutes of scoreless play. Moss replied for the Police after the interval. Moon Kay netted the equaliser, and Wong Tsing-yao the deciding point in the extra time allowed.

The teams were:—
POLICE: Aitken; Patken, Chan Kwong-yue; Fan Kwai-chi, Brittan, North; Wong Tsing-yao, Frier, Moon Kay, Kong Hing.

CLUB: Cole; Keown, Taylor; Skinner, Kirwan, Millington; Pile Dunnett, Fowler, Strange and Shore.
